

I'm still singing

Words and music by Gitika Partington and Andrew McCrorie-Shand

© 2014 by Gitika Partington and Andrew McCrorie-Shand

Sing me on a journey;
Sing soft when the warm winds blow.
Sing me on a journey;
I face the sun and my eyes are closed.

Sing me on a journey;
I sing out on the mountains high.
Sing me on a journey;
Sometimes I laugh, sometimes I cry.

*So the journey goes by, and I'm still singing.
I laugh and I cry, and I'm still singing.
I can fall, I can fly, and I'm still singing.
Say hello or goodbye, and I'm still singing.
mm mm*

Sing me on a journey;
Sing soft when the warm winds blow.
Sing me on a journey;
I face the sun and my eyes are closed.

Sing me on a journey;
Sing soft like a lullaby.
Sing me on a journey;
Sometimes I laugh, sometimes I cry.

*So the journey goes by, and I'm still singing.
I laugh and I cry, and I'm still singing.
I can fall, I can fly, and I'm still singing.
Say hello or goodbye, and I'm still singing.
mm mm*

Still singing, mm mm
I'm still singing. mm mm
Still singing, mm mm
I'm still singing. Mm

Sing me on a journey;
Sing soft when the warm winds blow.
Sing me on a journey;
I face the sun and my eyes are closed.

Sing me on a journey;
I sing out on the mountains high.
Sing me on a journey;
Sometimes I laugh, sometimes I cry.

*So the journey goes by, and I'm still singing.
I laugh and I cry, and I'm still singing.
I can fall, I can fly, and I'm still singing.
Say hello or goodbye, and I'm still singing.
mm mm*

Still singing. mm mm

I'm still singing. mm mm

Still singing. mm mm

I'm still singing. mm mm

