

Homework activities Term 4

This term we are continuing looking at the history of World War 2 and the impact that it had on the people alive at the time. Each week, pick one of the activities below to carry out at home and upload your work to the assignment on Teams either as a photograph, word document or power point file. Alternatively, you can complete your chosen activity in your homework book and return it to your teacher at school.

Radio presenter

Write and record your own wartime radio broadcast. If possible, use an audio editing package like Audacity to add sound effects such as air raid sirens or overhead aircraft.

Imagine you're an evacuee

Option 1: Write a diary entry home describing what you are doing and how you are feeling.

Option 2: You're allowed to take just one book with you to your new home. Which one would you take? Write a book review to encourage others to read your chosen book.

Imagine you're a host.

Imagine a child has been evacuated to your home. How would you make them feel welcome? How could you support them if they were missing their own home or family? Which places in your local area would you like to show them? Write a "Welcome to..." leaflet to make them feel at home.

Wartime recipes

Option 1: Research rationing and write a menu using those ingredients.

Option 2: Research different war time recipes and write your own set of instructions about how to make one. You could even have a go at making it yourself!

World War 2 Scrapbook

Make a scrapbook of World War 2 images and write captions for each one. Include thought bubbles to describe how the people in the photographs might be feeling.

Dig for Victory!

Find out about the types of vegetables people were encourage to grow during the War and have a go at cooking or growing some. Create a propaganda poster encouraging people to grow their own food.

Biography

Research and write a short biography about a famous character from World Ward 2 e.g. Winston Churchill.

Any project of your choice linked to World War 2!

You might want to think about submarines, aircrafts, propaganda, air raid shelters, coded messages... The list in endless! You can complete this task more than once.
